There are also numerous options available via Booking.com and Airbnb.

As the Summer School takes place in July (peak tourist season), we strongly recommend booking accommodation as early as possible.

How to Travel to Cres

Cres is an island in the northern Adriatic Sea and is connected to the mainland by ferry. The most convenient access points are via Rijeka, Zagreb, or Pula.

By Air

The nearest airport is Rijeka Airport (RJK), located on the neighbouring island of Krk.

Seasonal flight connections (June–September) include:

Ryanair – London Stansted, Stockholm, Brussels Charleroi, Frankfurt Hahn (2x weekly), Wrocław (3x weekly)

Eurowings – Stuttgart, Hamburg, Cologne, Düsseldorf (2x weekly)

Wizz Air – Gdańsk, Lublin (2x weekly), Katowice (3x weekly)

Lufthansa – Frankfurt (2x weekly)

Air Dolomiti – Munich (1x weekly)

Swiss – Zurich (seasonal)

Croatia Airlines – Munich (year-round service, frequency varies seasonally)

Air Serbia – Belgrade (2x weekly, seasonal)

Trade Air – Split, Dubrovnik, Osijek (year-round); Zadar (seasonal)

The final seasonal timetable is published annually in spring on the Rijeka Airport website:

<https://rijeka-airport.hr>

Other convenient airports:

Pula Airport (PUY) – <https://airport-pula.hr>

Zagreb Airport (ZAG) – <https://www.zagreb-airport.hr>

Please allow sufficient travel time, as bus and ferry connections are not very frequent.

From Rijeka Airport (RJK)

Rijeka Airport is located in Omišalj (island of Krk): take the airport shuttle bus to Omišalj / Krk and then a bus to Cres.
